

Advanced Search

Website Evaluation

When you are evaluating a website for research there is certain criteria you should look at.

Look at the url of your website <http://www.historycentral.com>

The last 3 letters after the period in a url represents who owns a website.

.com – for profit company

.org – non profit organization

.edu – college/university

.gov - government

What type of organization owns your website?

It is valuable to know specifically who owns or registered a website, go to the below link and find who owns the website.

<http://whois.domaintools.com/>

Websites change over time. The Internet Archive is taking pictures of ALL the websites on the web everyday. Go to the below link and find out how old your website is. Look at the oldest version of your website.

<http://www.archive.org/>

Check the criteria that your website meets.

Professional Looking _____

No Misspellings _____

Complete Information _____

Current Information _____